

Cleaford News

December 2008

Attila leading the new Roma group in Apalina. When we had finished the children's programme, the adults stayed on.

More chairs are needed in the new church building in Gornesti

The new church group in Rava Roma community meets on a hillside in fine weather. There does not appear to be a building large enough for a church meeting....

The church leader has a furniture business, and lent the sofas and stools!

